Court adjourned until 11 o'clock to-day. To-day's PROCEEDINGS.—Joseph Kaufman was naturalized.

An account of Dr. Gulick, against the county, was ordered to be certified.

The Attorney for the Commonwealth presented the following informations: Against Benjamin Wade, for an assault and battery; against George Williams, for an assault and battery; against Ellen Green, for an assault and battery; against Eliza Baylis, for an assault and battery; against Thomas Javins, for petit larceny; against Rachel Lewis, for an assault and battery; against Ann Grayson, for an assault and battery; against J. W. Higgins, for obtaining goods under false pretenses, and against John Bell, for petit larceny.

Stewart vs. Bowie—in chancery—motion to abate attachment.

Baggett, administrator, vs. Harrison and Dougherty—motion on forthcoming bond—special plea in writing filed.

Alfred Lane, indicted for the murder of Patrick Gaffney, was recognized, with Elijah Withers and Robert Williams, his sureties, each in the sum of $250, to appear at the next term of the Court.

Rules were issued returnable immediately against Andrew Schuler, a witness in the case of the Commonwealth against Andrew Taylor, and against Green Crawford, a witness in the case of the Commonwealth against Fitzhugh.

Benoni Wheat qualified under bond of $3,000 as Committee of Cassius Wheat.

Rachel Lewis, colored, one of the parties engaged in the late disturbance at the Freedmen's Village, under indictment for assault and battery, was found guilty, and sentenced by the Court to thirty days imprisonment in the County jail.

The Commonwealth's Attorney finding some fault with the lightness of the sentence, and remarking that for almost a similar offence a man yesterday had been condemned to one year's confinement in the penitentiary, the Presiding Justice said that as far as he was concerned "he would like to see the Freedmen's Bureau 'busted up,' for he considered it a perfect nuisance."

Ann Grayson, Ellen Green, and Eliza Baylis, all under indictment for the same offence as that committed by Rachel Lewis, at the suggestion of the Court, had the same sentence passed upon them.

COUNTY MAP.—The order proposed by Presiding Justice McKenzie, and adopted by the County Court, mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, for a Map of the County, is an excellent one, and the work, we hope, will be completed in as short a time as possible. The country part of Alexandria county is most eligibly and advantageously situated, for small farms and market gardens. Of the city we speak so often—and shall continue to do so—that it is not necessary here, to-day, to say anything. The public abroad will, by the Map, be enabled to judge of the openings offered in the county, for agricultural pursuits—for manufacturing—for mills of all descriptions—and for all industrial purposes. The county is healthy—it is situated close to Washington and Georgetown—a fine navigable river washes its shores, and a Canal, railroad, and turnpike and county roads run through it. The soil is excellent and capable of great improvement—wood and timber abound—and its county seat, Alexandria, is one of the best markets in the country, and is one of the best situated shipping and commercial ports. There is not a county in the State, we believe, which presents such inducements for investment by capitalists, or promises such rewards to industry and perseverance. The county ought to be a garden, from end to end—and Alexandria city should grow and flourish, with the hoped for return of peace and prosperity to the whole country. The county of Alexandria is a small, compact territory—though large enough, if it has its full measure of an industrious population.

The excellent map of the City of Alexandria made for the Alexandria Canal Co., several years ago, by the late Mr. Ewing, the Engineer for that company, we presume will be the basis for that portion of the proposed map, which includes the town.

LUSUS NATURÆ.—Mr. John Thompson, who lives in the Third Ward, beyond the Court House, is the owner of a white puddle duck, which for some time past has been laying eggs of a mahogany color. The eggs are preserved, and have been seen by many who are unable to understand why Mr. Thompson's white duck should so differ from all other white ducks, as to lay instead of white eggs.

RIVER TRIPS.—A correspondent writes that the steamers running from Baltimore to this place, and the Potomac River boats, "would be almost sure to make money, by offering as an addition to their usual fare, fish, oysters, crabs, and the luxuries of the River and Bay, to passengers who would make the trip for pleasure and enjoyment. Hundreds would go down the river to its mouth and back, or come and go to Baltimore, in the steamboats, if they could procure, during the summer months, river fare—as a change from the meat and city diet, to which they are accustomed."

THE AQUEDUCT BRIDGE.—The suspension of canal navigation, caused by the break near Hancock, has afforded an opportunity to the lessees of the aqueduct bridge to draw the water therefrom, for the purpose of placing a number of additional angle blocks in the bridge, thereby further strengthening the structure.

THE FARMINGTON LINE.—The steamer Ferry left Baltimore to-day for this port, and will, as soon as she arrives, be put on the line between this city and Farmington. The Cynthia, of this line it is reported, has broken some of her machinery, as she has not made a trip for several days.

RAILROAD RECEIPTS.—There were received over the O. & M. R. last week, among other things, 3200 bushels of grain, of which 2500 were corn, 18 tons of barytes, 2317 feet of lumber, 16 sacks of wool, and 55 firkins of butter. 300 tons of freight were sent out.

DEPOT AGENT.—Capt. R. M. Sully, has been appointed Depot Agent of the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad Company, at Gordonsville, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Freeman.

VIRGINIA EXPRESS COMPANY.—The Virginia Express Company is now running daily freights to all points on the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas, and Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroads.

THE WEATHER continues very warm. The thermometer at this office, in the shade, to-day, stood at 88°. We hear there have been showers recently in some portions of the neighboring country.

BANK CAVED IN.—A bank near the mouth of the Railroad tunnel, on Wilks street, fell in yesterday, fortunately, however, not until the workmen, who were engaged in digging sand from it, had made their escape.

INJURED.—A young man named John Padgett, employed in the spoke factory of Verplank & Co., had his right hand caught in the machinery there on Monday evening last, and was seriously hurt in consequence.

THEFT OF A WATER PIPE.—The lead water pipe of the Hydraulion Fire Company's House was cut off and carried away on Saturday night last.

BULL KILLED.—A bull belonging to a man named O'Connell, living near the canal basin, was kicked to death by a mule yesterday.

MAD DOG.—A mad dog was shot and killed, early this morning, on South Washington street.

ELECTION OF COLORED SCHOOL TRUSTEE.—William Syphax, colored, messenger to the Secretary of the Interior, has been appointed by the Secretary as one of the trustees of colored schools in Washington. The board now stands: Alfred Jones and William Syphax, both colored, and Albert G. Hall, Collector of taxes.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Washington City Councils last evening elected the various municipal officers: Mr. W. A. Cook, corporation Attorney; Martin, superintendent of the Alms House; Ward Commissioners, (one a colored man) &c—all Radicals.

The thunder-storm which passed over the city on Sunday evening was far more severe in the vicinity than it was in Washington. At Great Falls, a house occupied by a colored family named Offutt was nearly demolished, two sisters instantly killed, and a third badly burned by a stroke of lightning.

A black man and a white woman have been arrested charged with being concerned in robbing the house of Mr. John Usher of $14,000.

Mayor Bowen yesterday removed a large number of Corporation officers.

POLICE REPORT.—MAYOR'S OFFICE.—John Kersey, for striking a colored girl named Wilkins, and for throwing stones at a colored man named Joseph Wilkins, was fined and discharged.

George Johnson, a suspicious character, and for disorderly conduct, was arrested by watchmen Jones and Cogswell, and in default of the payment of the imposed fine, was committed to the work house for ninety days.

At a regular meeting of the Hydraulion Fire Company, held July 7, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted, viz:

Resolved, That we deeply feel the loss of one to whom we had learned to look upon as a friend and brother, but we find consolation in the thought that while fulfilling the duties of this transitory life he was guided in his actions by the principles of virtue and honor.

Resolved, That in his death we lose a valuable citizen and a faithful companion.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the parents and friends of the deceased in this their hour of affliction, and we would tender them our sympathy, hoping that while their minds are clouded with sorrow they will find consolation and comfort in the thought that God in whom they have trusted and whom they have remembered in the hour of happiness, will still comfort them in this their hour of distress.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be conveyed to the parents of our deceased fellow-member, and that they be published in the city papers.

JOHN NAYLOR. Secretary pro tem.

ESTRAY.—Came to my house, on or about the 29th of last June, a large BLACK COW, ten or twelve years old, poor condition, crooked horns, white face and belly, and gives a small quantity of milk marked on ears. The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take her away, or she will be disposed of according to law.

ISAAC RICHARDS, Colored, jyl 8-31 Near Gooding's Tavern, Fairfax co.

WHITE CAMBRIC FOR DRESS BODIES.—White Swiss and French Muslin, White Plaid and Striped Nainsooks, white soft finish Cambric and India Mull, white barred and striped Cambric, white dotted and figured Muslin, white embroidered Eging and Insertings. We have just received additions to our stock of these goods, and invite purchasers to examine our stock.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE

National Democratic Convention--Balloting--No Nomination.

TAMMANY HALL, NEW YORK, July 8.—The Convention was called to order this morning at 10:30, Gov. Seymour in the chair.

The hall is filled in every part, many ladies being present.

The reading of the minutes of yesterday were dispensed with.

Missouri called for the reading of the names of the National Executive Committee, which was ordered.

Mr. Price, of Missouri, assuming the chair.

Mr. Bayard, of Delaware, said that there was some mistake about the name recorded for that State, and asked that it be omitted in the call. He was sure that the name as published had not been agreed to by the majority of the delegation.

In the list read California had named John Bigler, and New York August Belmont.

Mr. Fitch, of Indiana, rose to present one of its most talented citizens, as a candidate before this Convention for the Presidential nomination, one of the best and purest men of the nation. Indiana had thought it right to cast a vote for a reasonable length of time for Pendleton, and in the opinion of the majority of the delegation that reasonable time had passed, though the minority were still of the opinion that they ought to adhere further to the gentleman from Ohio. The majority had no disposition, even if it had the power, to force their views upon the minority. In conclusion he briefly eulogized and nominated Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana.

Mr. Price, of Indiana, on the part of the minority, urged adherence to Pendleton, but expressed the highest respect for Hendricks, but said that the minority could not go for him, because his State Convention had declared their preference for Pendleton, against the most earnest and persistent opposition. In accordance with that preference the delegates had resolved to stand by Pendleton so long as there was a reasonable hope of his nomination, (great cheers and some hisses).

The roll was called, and at each vote for Pendleton, the galleries applauded vociferously.

The same demonstrations greeted the votes for Hendricks.

Mississippi cast her vote for Pendleton on this ballot.

The vote of New York for Church was cheered.

During the roll call a delegate from Oregon attempted to make an explanation, concerning the vote his delegation would give, but was ruled out of order, in as much as he had admitted that he had no new candidate. He said that he only wanted to re-endorse Pendleton.

Tennessee gave 4½ votes for Pendleton for this first time.

The result of the ballot was as follows:

Alabama, Pendleton, 8; Arkansas, Hendricks, 5; California, Hancock, 14; Pendleton, 3; Hendricks, 4; Connecticut, English, 6; Delaware, Pendleton, 3; Florida, Hendricks, 3; Georgia, Pendleton, 8; and Hendricks, 1; Illinois, Pendleton, 10; Indiana, Pendleton, 3½, and Hendricks, 9½; Iowa, Pendleton, 8; Kansas, Pendleton, 2; Hendricks, 3; Blair, 2; Kentucky, Pendleton, 11; Louisiana, Hancock, 7; Maine, Hancock, 4½; Pendleton, 1½; Hendricks, 1; Maryland, Pendleton, 6½; Hendricks, 13; Massachusetts, Hancock, 11; Pendleton, 1; Michigan, Hendricks, 8; Minnesota, Pendleton, 4; Mississippi, Pendleton, 7; Missouri, Hancock, 11; Pendleton, 4; A. Johnson, 1; Hendricks, 5; Nebraska, Pendleton, 3; Nevada, Pendleton, 3; New Hampshire, Hancock, 3; Pendleton, 14; Hendricks, 13; New Jersey, Parker, 7; New York, Church, 3; North Carolina, Hancock, 9; Ohio, Pendleton, 21; Oregon, Pendleton, 3; Pennsylvania, Parker, 26; Rhode Island, Doolittle, 4; South Carolina, A. Johnson, 6; Tennessee, Pendleton, 4½; A. Johnson, 5½; Texas, Hancock, 6; Vermont, Doolittle, 5; Virginia, Pendleton, 10; West Virginia, Pendleton, 5; Wisconsin, Doolittle, 8.

The result was then announced as follows: English, 6; Hancock, 42½; Pendleton, 137½; [Cheers]; Parker, 7; Church, 33; Parker, 26; A. Johnson, 12½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 39½; [Cheers]; Blair, 2—no choice.

Mr. Tilden then asked leave for the New York delegates to retire for consultation, five members of the delegation having asked it; objection was made, and the question being put to the Convention, it was decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Clymer, of Penn., moved for a recess of fifteen minutes, which motion was carried, and the Convention took a recess for fifteen minutes.

Time was called in fifteen minutes, and the Chair called the Convention to order.

Rumor spread in the hall that New York would break on the next ballot, casting a part, if not all of her vote for Hendricks. This was denied by some who said that while New York will leave Church to-day, unless he attracts support from other States, they are not yet ready to drop him.

Excitement and anxiety are intense.

The clerk proceeded to call the roll on the 8th ballot, each vote being received with demonstrations of applause by the friends of the respective candidates, in the galleries.

Louisiana, changed from Hancock to Pendleton.

Mississippi, voted solidly for Pendleton.

At the conclusion of the roll call, Mr. Tilden, by the unanimous vote of the delegation and the consent of S. E. Church, withdrew the name of the latter and cast the 33 votes of New York for Hendricks. The wildest excitement; long continued cheers with hisses ensued.

The vote on the 8th ballot was announced as follows: Alabama, Pendleton, 8; Arkansas, Hancock, 12½; Pendleton, 3½; California, Hendricks, 5; Connecticut, English, 6; Delaware, Pendleton, 3; Florida, Hendricks, 3; Georgia, Pendleton, 9; Illinois, Pendleton, 10; Indiana, Pendleton, 3½; Hendricks, 9½; Iowa, Pendleton, 8; Kansas, Pendleton, 2; Hendricks, 3; and the following was the result: English, 6; Hancock, 28; Pendleton, 156½; (cheers); Parker, 7; Parker, 26; A. Johnson, 6; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 75; (cheers); Blair, 1½; whole number of votes 317—no choice.

There having been official hissing in the galleries, the President announced that the galleries would be cleared if repeated. Cries of "good" and applause.

The 9th ballot resulted: English, 6; Hancock 34½; Pendleton, 144; Parker, 7; Parker, 26½; A. Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 8½; Blair, 1½—no choice being made.

The roll being called on the 10th ballot, when Connecticut was announced 3 for English; remainder for Pendleton.

A member of the delegation arose and denied this, insisting that the vote was six for English.

Mr. Eaton of Connecticut said that he was chairman of the delegation and entitled to cast its vote.

The chair ruled that the delegations must settle those questions among themselves, and ordered Connecticut to be passed by until her vote could be agreed upon.

Subsequently her vote was cast 3 for Hendricks and 3 for Pendleton.

The 10th ballot resulted Hancock, 34; Pendleton, 147½; Parker, 7; Parker, 27½; Johnson, 6; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks 82½; Blair, 1.

Eleventh ballot, Hancock, 32½; Pendleton, 144½; Parker, 7; Parker, 26; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12½; Hendricks, 88, [Cheers]; Blair, 2.

During the recess the Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, of Indiana, appearing on the platform and was loudly called for.

Mr. Voorhees came forward, but said it would be so manifestly improper in him to address the audience at this time, that he only appeared before them to bow his acknowledgments, and no more.

The Convention was called to order again at twenty minutes before two, Vice-President Price, of Missouri, in the Chair, but it was found that not half of the delegates had yet returned to the hall.

The twelfth ballot showed no material change, Pendleton falling off and Hendricks gaining.

The 13th ballot was then taken, and resulted Hancock, 48; Pendleton, 134½; Parker, 7; Parker, 26; Johnson, 4½; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 81; Blair, 2; Franklin Pierce 1; Chase, 2—no choice.

The following were among the changes on this ballot: North Carolina gave her nine for Hancock instead of Pendleton; Virginia changed solidly to Hancock instead of 9½ for Pendleton as before.

The 14th ballot was taken at once, and resulted: Hancock, 56, [cheers]; Pendleton, 130; Parker, 7; Parker, 26; Doolittle, 13; Hendricks, 84½.

Among the changes on this ballot were Nebraska from Pendleton to Hendricks; Tennessee dropped Johnson, and gave Pendleton 5½; Hendricks, 4½.

Pennsylvania having retired for consultation, came in after the roll had been called and announced her vote: 26 for Hancock; great cheering on the floor and in the galleries.

The Secretary proceeded to call the roll on the 15th ballot with the following result:

Hancock, 79½; Pendleton, 120½; Parker, 7; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 82½.

On the 16th ballot the result was announced as follows: Hancock, 113½; Pendleton, 107½; Parker, 7; Johnson, 5½; Doolittle, 12; Hendricks, 70½.

The Kentucky delegation retired for consultation.

Gov. Seymour resumed the chair, when Michigan moved that the Convention take a recess until 5 o'clock—motion lost. New York asked leave to retire for consultation.

The chair announced that as Kentucky, Illinois and New York all desired to retire for consultation, business would be suspended until their return. Objection being made, the Chair said allowance must be made for the exhaustion of the secretaries, and he therefore announced a 10 minutes recess.

The following is the sixteenth ballot in full: Alabama, Pendleton, 8; Arkansas, Hancock, 5; California, Pendleton, 3; Hendricks, 13, not voted; Connecticut, Hancock 3; Pendleton, 3; Delaware, Pendleton, 3; Florida, Pendleton, 2½; Hendricks, 2; Georgia, Hancock, 6½; Pendleton, 2½; Illinois, Pendleton, 16; Indiana, Pendleton, 3; Hendricks 9½; Iowa, Pendleton, 8; Kansas, Hancock, 1; Hendricks, 2; Kentucky, Pendleton, 11; Louisiana, Hancock, 7; Maine, Hancock, 4½; Pendleton, 1½; Hendricks, 1; Maryland, Hancock, 5½; Pendleton, 1; Hendricks, 2; Massachusetts, Hancock, 11; Michigan, Hendricks, 8; Minnesota, Pendleton, 4; Mississippi, Hancock, 7; Missouri, Hancock, 3; Pendleton, 5; Hendricks, 3; Nebraska, Hancock, 3; Nevada, Pendleton, 3; New Hampshire, Hancock, 3; Parker, 7; Pendleton, 13; Hendricks, 2; New Jersey, Parker, 7; [Laughter and Hisses]; New York, Hendricks, 33; North Carolina, Hancock, 9; Ohio, Pendleton, 21; Oregon, Pendleton, 3; Pennsylvania, Hancock, 26; Rhode Island, Doolittle, 4; South Carolina, Hancock, 6; Tennessee, Pendleton, 4½; Johnson, 5½; Texas, Hancock, 6; Vermont, Hendricks, 5; Virginia, Hancock, 10; West Virginia, Pendleton, 3½; Hendricks, 12; Wisconsin, Doolittle, 8.

The 17th ballot resulted as follows: Hancock, 137½; Pendleton, 70; Hendricks, 80; remainder scattering. Hoffman received three votes on this ballot, and Chase, 2.

On the 18th ballot the vote stood: Pendleton, 53½; Hancock, 144½; Hendricks, 87; Hoffman, 3; Parker, 3½; Doolittle, 10; Johnson, 12.

At 4 o'clock the Convention took a recess till to-morrow at 10 a. m.

PIANOS! I wish to call the attention of persons wishing to buy PIANOS to the following: I have just received from our own citizens, hoping to prove it is not necessary to go away from home to buy these instruments on as good terms as anywhere else, and as cheap, if not cheaper; I also return many thanks to those who have so liberally patronized me in the short time I have been in this business.

Victor Becker—I am delighted with the beautiful 7 oct. Piano you have so d. me, and I know it is an exceedingly cheap instrument. W. Jos. MILLS.

The beautiful Piano you have sold me, made by Wm. Heinekamp, of Baltimore, has fulfilled all my expectations, and I cheerfully give my recommendation as to quality and moderate price.

Thet oct. Knabe & Co's Piano, you have sold me is pronounced by every one a splendid instrument, and I advise those in want of good and cheap Pianos to call on you. RICHARD PURCELL.

I think it is unnecessary to go out of town to buy Pianos when they can be had here on as low and reasonable terms as the beautiful 7 oct. Knabe & Co's Piano I have lately bought from you. My friend, Mr. MARY D. SWARTZ, I have more and more pleased with the Piano I have bought from you of Knabe & Co's make, both as to quality and price.

Mrs. C. A. JORCE. I am very much pleased with the Piano you sold me, and I believe you sell instruments on as good terms as any one else.

For further reference I will add the following names: Mr. A. Nicol, Mr. Wm. Arnold, Mr. Edward Hunt, Mr. John Dyer, Mr. James Grimes, Mr. Frank Elms, Mr. Burrows,
